

Hans Bruland
Vice President and General Manager

Mr. Hans Bruland has been the General Manger of the historic Hay-Adams since December 1998 and brought more than 26 years of hospitality industry experience to this landmark property. In June of 2001, Mr. Bruland assumed additional responsibilities as Vice President of the Hay-Adams Management Company, LLC.

The Hay-Adams is the residence of choice for the most discriminating visitors and is being consistently recognized as the number one property in Washington, D.C. and among the top 500 hotels in the worlds by the leading travel publications, as well as, the top choice for leading Hotels of the World, the only hotel in the nation's capital to received this recognition.

No stranger to Washington, D.C., Mr. Bruland moved to the nation's capital in 1991 and assumed the position of general manager of the Westin Hotel. He retained his responsibilities with All Nippon Airways after the company assumed responsibility for the facility until 1998. Mr. Bruland also directed the restructuring of the 5-Star ANA Grand Hotel in Vienna, Austria, and consulted for ANA's Guam and San Francisco properties, while maintaining his position in Washington. Mr. Bruland has also held senior positions in the Westin Hotels and ANA Hotels International.

He is a member of the Board of The Washington Performing Arts Society, a member of Leadership Greater Washington, Board of Trade, The German American Business Council and serves on the Board of the Business Improvement District, The Golden Triangle. He resides with his wife, Josie Bruland, in Washington, D.C.